

Alex Hart - Eagle Scout Project
2007

We collected clothing for the George Washington University Hospital to be given to the homeless who need their clothing surgically removed in order to receive medical treatment. We set up donation spots on the streets of DC and accepted any and all clothing donations. These were then sorted by type of clothing and delivered to the hospital.